PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

During various arts projects, especially those involving open invitations to participate, I accumulate personal data. This is usually just e-mail addresses and phone numbers, but on occasion more. Below is some more information about how I use this data in accordance with the recently introduced GPRD legislation.

I will only hold and retain information about you which is specifically needed to enable communication related to projects we are both involved in and/or to process financial transactions and/or other reasons you have consented to.

I will only share information about you with another organisation when I have received your consent except where we need to comply with legal or regulatory requirements.

I will not use the data I hold about you for any other purpose that for which it is specifically required.

When I no longer need information about you it will be erased within six months of our last interaction. I will erase any bank details after six months since the last transaction.

Any further queries, can be addressed to hughmccann94@gmail.com
